Dear Captain McMahon:

We have had a request for the copy of Halke's book which you borrowed. If it would be more convenient for you to return it by mail, please do so, although, of course, we should like to have the pleasure of greeting you if you should bring it back in person.

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Noe:-

Pardon me, please, for having kept Halke's book so long. The delay was occasioned partly by my interest in it, and mostly by the fact that I have been away a great part of the time since I took it out. Nevertheless the neglect is mine.

I am returning the book under separate cover this afternoon, and hope to follow it up and see you personally within the next couple of weeks.

Very truly yours,

B. B. McMahon
